

Prayers for the Class of 2018

Students from

Education Commission of Victoria Ltd (CECV) Executive Director Stephen Elder said.

communities.

210,000 students – almost one in four Victorian school children – have enjoyed a Catholic education in one of nearly 500 schools statewide, supported by some 28,000 staff.

Catholic schools offer a quality, affordable, faith and values-based education.

Working staff has put in to ensure our VCE contenders can be on peak performance and am immensely grateful for their work – and I know that the rest of our Catholic education family will be praying for their success.
